Harris Williams & Co.'s Thierry Monjauze Named One of Investment Dealers' Digest's Forty under Forty.

Harris Williams & Co.'s Thierry Monjauze is the firm's latest professional to be named one of Investment Dealers' Digest's Forty under Forty, which honors top professionals under the age of forty. Harris Williams & Co. has been recognized with this award four out of the last five years for the strength of its professionals.

Thierry Monjauze, Managing Director of Harris Williams & Co. Ltd in London is leading the firm's European advisory practice and international expansion. Thierry has over 14 years of investment banking experience leading numerous advisory and capital raising assignments including merger and acquisitions, board advisory, initial public offerings, private placements, and various strategic advisory engagements. He has done work across a broad range of sectors, with particular focus on technology, telecom and digital media. In 2009, Thierry worked on the second largest international software deal of the year, representing Autonomy Corporation, the U.K.'s largest software company by market-cap, in its acquisition of Interwoven, Inc. He has also advised Interhyp, Germany's largest independent residential mortgage distributor in its sale to ING DIRECT N.V. for €116 million and eBay in its acquisition of Denmark's DBA, the "eBay of Denmark", for $380 million.
